About

For almost 150 years, the Robertson Show has been bringing our community together, continuing the vision established at our first show in 1880 – promoting better knowledge and appreciation of agriculture and horticulture throughout our district.

Today, the Robertson Show remains a proudly volunteer-run, not-for-profit organisation, powered entirely by the dedication and passion of our committee, stewards and volunteers. Each year we welcome approximately 5,000 visitors through the gates, attract 10,000 visits to our website, and engage with a community of over 6,000 social media followers.

The Show has grown into one of the Southern Highlands' most vibrant community events, showcasing the very best of our region. From beef and dairy cattle, horses, dogs and poultry, to approximately 3,500 pavilion entries featuring outstanding arts and crafts, baking, flowers and produce, the Robertson Show celebrates the talents, traditions and industries that make our district unique.

By becoming a sponsor, you are not only supporting a cherished local institution, but also aligning your business with an event that values community, agriculture and regional enterprise.
